

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

10TH APRIL 2016

ST PAUL'S: 8 & 10AM

ST DAVID'S: 8.30AM

' They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, 'Children, you have no fish, have you?' They answered him, 'No.' He said to them, 'Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.' So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish.

Gathering in God's Name

INTROIT at 10am: (choir) Plainsong Vidi Aquam

I saw water flowing from the right side of the temple. It brought God's life and his salvation, and the people sang with joyful praise: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

HYMN TIS 361

1 The day of resurrection!
earth, tell it out abroad;
the passover of gladness,
the passover of God:
from death to life eternal,
from earth up to the sky,
our Christ has brought us over with hymns of victory.

2 Our hearts be pure from evil that we may see aright
the Lord in rays eternal
of resurrection light;
and listening to his greeting
may hear, so calm and strong,
his own 'All hail' and, hearing,
may raise the victors' song.

3 Now let the heav'ns be joyful and earth her song repeat,
the whole world shout in triumph
her living Lord to greet;
let all things seen and unseen
their notes of gladness blend,
for Christ the Lord has risen,
our joy that has no end.

Words: Words: John of Damascus c.675–749 tr. John Mason Neale 1818–66 alt. Tune: Ellacombe

The service continues on page 119.

SENTENCE

To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honour and glory and might for ever and ever. Revelation 5:13

COLLECT FOR THE DAY

Almighty God, through your only Son you overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: grant that we who celebrate our Lord's resurrection, may, through the renewing power of your Spirit, rise from the death of sin to the life of righteousness; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Ministry of the Word

A READING FROM ACTS 9:1-6

Please be seated

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.
Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' He asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' The reply came, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.'

For the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

PSALM 30 (Said by the congregation in alternate verses at 8am, by all the congregation at 8.30am and led by the cantor at 10am)

1 I will exalt you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up from the depths:
and have not suffered my foes to triumph over me.

2 O Lord my God, I cried to you:
and you have made me whole.

3 You brought me back, O Lord, from the land of silence:
you saved my life from among those that go down to the Pit.

4 Sing praises to the Lord, all you his faithful ones:
and give thanks to his holy name.

5 For if in his anger is havoc, in his good favour is life:
heaviness may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.

6 In my prosperity I said 'I shall never be moved:
your goodness, O Lord, has set me on so firm a hill.'

7 Then you hid your face from me:
and I was greatly dismayed.

8 I cried to you, O God:
and made my petition humbly to my Lord.

9 'What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit:
can the dust give you thanks, or declare your faithfulness?

10 'Hear, O Lord, and be merciful:
O Lord, be my helper.'

11 You have turned my lamentation into dancing:
you have put off my sackcloth and girded me with joy,

12 That my heart may sing your praise and never be silent:
O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

A READING FROM REVELATION 5:6-14

Then I saw between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders a Lamb standing as if it had been slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. He went and took the scroll from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne. When he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. They sing a new song: 'You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slaughtered and by your blood you ransomed for God's saints from every tribe and language and people and nation; you have made them to be a kingdom and priests serving our God, and they will reign on earth.' Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, 'Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honour and glory and blessing!' Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, 'To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honour and glory and might for ever and ever!' And the four living creatures said, 'Amen!' And the elders fell down and worshipped.

For the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God

HYMN — TIS 448

- 1 Blest are the pure in heart,
for they shall see our God;
the secret of the Lord is theirs,
their soul is Christ's abode.
- 2 The Lord who left the heavens
our life and peace to bring,
to dwell with us in lowliness,
our pattern and our King:
- 3 still to the lowly soul
he will himself impart,
and for his cradle and his throne chooses the pure in heart.
- 4 Lord, we your presence seek;
this blessing now renew:
give us a pure and lowly heart,
a temple fit for you.

THE HOLY GOSPEL — JOHN 21:1-19

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

✠Glory to you, ✠Lord Jesus ✠Christ

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, 'I am going fishing.' They said to him, 'We will go with you.' They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, 'Children, you have no fish, have you?' They answered him, 'No.' He said to them, 'Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.' So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord!' When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the lake. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off. When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, 'Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.' So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, 'Who are you?' because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' He said to him the third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' And he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.' (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, 'Follow me.'

ANNOUNCEMENTS

OFFERTORY HYMN — TIS 658 (During the singing of this hymn, the gifts of bread, wine and money are brought to the altar)

1 I, the Lord of sea and sky,

I have heard my people cry.

All who dwell in dark and sin
my hand will save.

I who made the stars of night,

I will make their darkness bright.

Who will bear my light to them?

Whom shall I send?

Here I am, Lord;

is it I, Lord?

I have heard you

calling in the night;

I will go, Lord,

if you lead me.

I will hold your people in my heart.

2 I, the Lord of snow and rain,

I have borne my people's pain;

I have wept for love of them.

They turn away.

I will break their hearts of stone,

give them hearts for love alone.

I will speak my word to them.

Whom shall I send?

Here I am, Lord...

3 I, the Lord of wind and flame,

I will tend the poor and lame,

I will set a feast for them.

My hand will save.

Finest bread I will provide till their hearts are satisfied.

I will give my life to them.

Whom shall I send?

Here I am, Lord...

Words: Daniel L. Schutte 1947- . suggested by Isaiah 6.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING - Page 154 then pages 128-9

COMMUNION (at 10am: choir) Henry Walford Davies (1869-1941) O Filii et Filiae

O sons and daughters let us sing, the King of Heav'n the glorious King, o'er death today rose triumphing. That Easter morn at break of day, the faithful women went their way to seek the tomb where Jesus lay. An angel clad in white they see, who sat and spoke unto the three, "Your Lord has gone to Galilee." That night the apostles met in fear; amidst them came their Lord most dear and said, "My peace be on all here." How blest are they who have not seen and yet whose faith hath constant been, for they eternal life shall win. On this most Holy Day of Days to God your hearts and voices raise in laud and jubilee and praise: Alleluia!

HYMN — TIS 228

- 1 Crown him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon the throne;
hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
all music but its own:
awake, my soul, and sing
of him who died for me,
and hail him as your chosen king
through all eternity.
- 4 Crown him the Lord of life,
who triumphed o'er the grave,
and rose victorious in the strife
for those he came to save:
his glories now we sing
who died, and rose on high;
who died eternal life to bring,
and lives that death may die.
- 5 Crown him the Lord of peace,
whose power a sceptre sways
from pole to pole, that wars may cease, absorbed in prayer and praise:
his reign shall know no end,
and round his pierced feet fair flowers of paradise extend their fragrance ever sweet.
- 6 Crown him the Lord of years,
the Potentate of time, Creator of the rolling spheres,
majestic and sublime:
all hail, Redeemer, hail!
for you have died for me;
your praise shall never, never fail
throughout eternity.

Words: Matthew Bridges 1800–94 and Godfrey Thring 1823–1903 alt. Tune: Diademata

The beautiful flowers in St Paul's today were donated by the family of Ian Dean Bollen to acknowledge 20 years today since his passing. They give grateful thanks for his life and love. Many will remember his dedication to parish life over a long period of time, especially as a chorister.

Choral evensong: the choir sings choral evensong at St Paul's, 6pm Sunday 17th April. Music includes Brewer in D, Goodall Psalm 23, and responses by Smith of Durham. All welcome.

Discovery Group's April meeting will be held on Wednesday 20th April in the Mollison Room from 10.30 am to 12 noon. This month's guest speaker will be Dawn Laing who will bring an ANZAC Day theme to her talk. Dawn, who is a defence widow, will base her discussion on a collection of stories that have been written by a number of defence widows. We hope you will be able to join us for what will be a most interesting session.

CES Public Forum: The Rt. Rev'd Professor Stephen Pickard will speak on the topic: Religion, Violence and the Peaceable Kingdom. at the Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture, 20th April at 7.30 pm Donation: $5. Supper provided. Contact: Robyn Coghlan 6254 0487.

Walking Group. 23rd April. A Favourite Walk with a Favourite Leader! The Camel's Hump @ Tidbinbilla - 13.5 km return described as hard. This is a rewarding walk with a steep climb to start and thence undulating. We will see good views and enjoy lunch at The Hump (subject to track access). Meet at Tidbinbilla Visitor Centre carpark at 9.15 a.m. to pool cars to the track head. There will be a nominal fee to enter the Reserve. Please bring usual track snacks and lunch for the walk and some afternoon tea for post walk. Sticks are recommended. Please register your intentions with your leader - Mike Roach 62816096 or mrroach.16@bigpond.com.

Verandah food donations: We now have more than enough plain uncooked pasta, so please do not donate any more uncooked pasta until further notice. As an alternative we would welcome your donations of bean/spaghetti meals, tinned stew, or fruit portions in individual plastic containers or tins. Any queries to Miriam Bruning. Thanks for your support of this worthwhile outreach.
