

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

4TH SEPTEMBER 2016

ST PAUL'S: 8 & 10AM

ST DAVID'S: 8.30AM

... he turned and said to them, ... “For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, ‘This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.’ ... So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.”

Luke 14:25, 28-30, 33

Gathering in God's Name

INTROIT at 10am: (choir) Richard Farrant (1530-1580) Lord, for thy tender mercy's sake Lord, for thy tender mercy's sake, lay not our sins to our charge, but forgive that is past and give us grace to amend our sinful lives; to decline from sin and incline to virtue, that we may walk with a perfect heart before thee now and evermore. Amen [Words from J. Bull's Christian Prayers and Holy Meditations (1568)]

HYMN TIS 449

1. Stand up and bless the Lord,
you people of his choice;
stand up and bless the Lord your God with heart, and soul, and voice.
2. Though high above all praise, above all blessing high,
who would not fear his holy name,
and praise and magnify?
3. O for the living flame from his own altar brought,
to touch our lips, our minds inspire,
and wing to heaven our thought!
4. God is our strength and song,
and his salvation ours;
then be his love in Christ proclaimed with all our ransomed powers.
5. Stand up and bless the Lord,
the Lord your God adore;
stand up and bless his glorious name, henceforth for evermore.

Words: James Montgomery 1771–1854 alt. Tune: Carlisle.

The service continues on page 119.

SENTENCE

Whoever does not carry the cross and follow Jesus cannot be his disciple.

Luke 14:27

COLLECT FOR THE DAY

God of the ages, you call the Church to keep watch in the world and to discern the signs of the times: grant us the wisdom that your Spirit bestows, so that with courage we may proclaim your prophetic word, and complete the work you have set before us; through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Ministry of the Word

A READING FROM JEREMIAH 18:1-11

Please be seated

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 'Come, go down to the potter's house, and there I will let you hear my words.' So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was working at his wheel. The vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as seemed good to him. Then the word of the LORD came to me: Can I not do with you, O house of Israel, just as this potter has done? says the LORD. Just like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel. At one moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it, but if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I intended to bring on it. And at another moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will build and plant it, but if it does evil in my sight, not listening to my voice, then I will change my mind about the good that I had intended to do to it. Now, therefore, say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Thus says the LORD:

Look, I am a potter shaping evil against you and devising a plan against you. Turn now, all of you from your evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.

For the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

PSALM 139:1-5, 12-18 (Said by the congregation in alternate verses at 8am, by all the congregation at 8.30am and led by the choir at 10am)

- 1 O Lord, you have searched me out and known me:
you know when I sit or when I stand, you comprehend my thoughts long before.
- 2 You discern my path and the places where I rest:
you are acquainted with all my ways.
- 3 For there is not a word on my tongue:
but you, Lord, know it altogether.
- 4 You have encompassed me behind and before:
and have laid your hand upon me.
- 5 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me:
so high that I cannot endure it.
- 12 For you have created my inward parts:
you knit me together in my mother's womb.
- 13 I will praise you, for you are to be feared:
fearful are your acts, and wonderful your works.
- 14 You knew my soul, and my bones were not hidden from you:
when I was formed in secret, and woven in the depths of the earth.
- 15 Your eyes saw my limbs when they were yet imperfect:
and in your book were all my members written;
- 16 Day by day they were fashioned:
and not one was late in growing.
- 17 How deep are your thoughts to me, O God:
and how great is the sum of them!
- 18 Were I to count them, they are more in number than the sand:
were I to come to the end, I would still be with you.

A READING FROM PHILEMON 1-25

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our dear friend and co-worker, to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in your house: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith towards the Lord Jesus. I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ. I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother. For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty, yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love – and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment. Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me. I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you. I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel; but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced. Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back for ever, no longer as a slave but as more than a slave, a beloved brother – especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self. Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ. Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say. One thing more – prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping through your prayers to be restored to you. Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends greetings to you, and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow-workers. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

For the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God

HYMN — TIS 583

1. Take up your cross,' the Saviour said,
'if you would my disciple be;
take up your cross with willing heart and humbly follow after me.'
2. Take up your cross; let not its weight fill your weak spirit with alarm; his strength shall bear your spirit up and brace your heart and nerve your arm.
4. Take up your cross, then, in his strength and calmly every danger brave;
it guides you to a better home and leads to victory o'er the grave.
5. Take up your cross and follow Christ, nor think till death to lay it down;
for only those who bear the cross may hope to wear the glorious crown.

THE HOLY GOSPEL — LUKE 14:25-35

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

✠Glory to you, ✠Lord Jesus ✠Christ

Now large crowds were travelling with him; and he turned and said to them, ‘Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, “This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.” Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions. ‘Salt is good; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure heap; they throw it away. Let anyone with ears to hear listen!’

For the gospel of the Lord praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

OFFERTORY HYMN — TIS 152 (During the singing of this hymn, the gifts of bread, wine and money are brought to the altar)

1. Joyful, joyful, we adore you,
God of glory, God of love;
hearts unfold like flowers before you opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness, drive the dark of doubt away;
giver of immortal gladness,
fill us with the light of day.
2. All your works with joy surround you, earth and heav'n reflect your rays, stars and angels sing around you,
centre of unbroken praise.
Field and forest, vale and mountain, flowery meadow, flashing sea, singing bird and flowing fountain call to praise you joyfully.
3. You are giving and forgiving, ever blessing, ever blest,
well-spring of the joy of living,
ocean-depth of happy rest.
You our Father, Christ our brother, all are yours who live in love;
teach us how to love each other,
lift us to your joy above.

Words: Henry Van Dyke 1852–1933. Tune: Ode to Joy

HYMN — TIS 456

1. Your hand, O God, has guided your flock from age to age;
the wondrous tale is written,
full clear, on every page;
your people owned your goodness,
and we their deeds record;
and both of this bear witness:
one church, one faith, one Lord.
2. Your heralds brought glad tidings to greatest, as to least;
they bade them rise, and hasten to share the great King's feast;
and this was all their teaching,
in every deed and word,
to all alike proclaiming
one church, one faith, one Lord.

3. Through many a day of darkness,
through many a scene of strife,
the faithful few fought bravely to guard the nation's life.
Their gospel of redemption, sin pardoned, earth restored,
was all in this enfolded:
one church, one faith, one Lord.

4. Your mercy will not fail us, nor leave your work undone;
with your right hand to help us,
the victory shall be won;
and then by all creation,
your name shall be adored,
and this shall be our anthem:
one church, one faith, one Lord.

Words: Edward Hayes Plumtre 1821–91 alt.. Tune: Thornbury

DISMISSAL

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

In the name of Christ. Amen
