

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

24TH SEPTEMBER 2017

ST PAUL'S: 8AM & 10AM

ST DAVID'S: 8.30AM

... they grumbled against the landowner, saying, "These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat." But he replied to one of them, "Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?"

Matthew 20:10-15

HYMN TIS 526

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Lord Jesus Christ,
you have come to us,
you are one with us,
Mary's son;
cleansing our souls from all their sin,
pouring your love and goodness in,
Jesus, our love for you we sing,
living Lord. 2. Lord Jesus Christ,
now and every day
teach us how to pray,
Son of God.
You have commanded us to do this in remembrance, Lord, of you:
into our lives your power breaks through,
living Lord. | 3. Lord Jesus Christ,
you have come to us,
born as one of us,
Mary's son;
led out to die on Calvary,
risen from death to set us free,
living Lord Jesus, help us see you are Lord. 4. Lord Jesus Christ, I would come to you,
live my life for you,
Son of God.
All your commands I know are true,
your many gifts will make me new,
into my life your power breaks through,
living Lord. |

SENTENCE (8.30am only)

By grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God.
Ephesians 2:8-9

COLLECT FOR THE DAY

Loving and righteous God, your boundless generosity exceeds all that we can desire or deserve, and you give to the last worker all you promised to the first: liberate us from all jealousy and greed, that we may be free to love and serve others, and in your service may find our true reward; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Ministry of the Word

A READING FROM EXODUS 16:2-15

Please be seated

The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. The Israelites said to them, 'If only we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.' Then the LORD said to Moses, 'I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not. On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days.' So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, 'In the evening you shall know that it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your complaining against the LORD. For what are we, that you complain against us?' And Moses said, 'When the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, because the LORD has heard the complaining that you utter against him – what are we? Your complaining is not against us but against the LORD.' Then Moses said to Aaron, 'Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, "Draw near to the LORD, for he has heard your complaining."' And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked towards the wilderness, and the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud. The LORD spoke to Moses and said, 'I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, "At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the LORD your God."' In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, 'What is it?' For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, 'It is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat.

For the word of the Lord
thanks be to God.

PSALM 105:1-6, 37-45 (Said by the congregation in alternate verses at 8am, by all the congregation at 8.30am and sung by the choir at 10am)

- 1 O give thanks to the Lord and call upon his name:
tell among the peoples what things he has done.
- 2 Sing to him, O sing praises:
and be telling of all his marvellous works.
- 3 Exult in his holy name:
and let those that seek the Lord be joyful in heart.
- 4 Seek the Lord and his strength:
O seek his face continually.
- 5 Call to mind what wonders he has done:
his marvellous acts, and the judgements of his mouth,
- 6 O seed of Abraham his servant:
O children of Jacob his chosen one.
- 37 He brought Israel out with silver and with gold:
and not one among their tribes was seen to stumble.
- 38 Egypt was glad at their going:
for dread of Israel had fallen upon them.
- 39 He spread out a cloud for a covering:
and fire to lighten the night.
- 40 The people asked, and he brought them quails:
and satisfied them with the bread from heaven.
- 41 He opened a rock, so that the waters gushed:
and ran in the parched land like a river.
- 42 For he had remembered his holy word:
that he gave to Abraham his servant.
- 43 So he led out his people with rejoicing:
his chosen ones with shouts of joy;

44 He gave them the land of the nations:
and they took possession of the fruit for which other peoples had toiled,

45 So that they might keep his statutes:
and faithfully obey his laws. O praise the Lord.

A READING FROM PHILIPPIANS 1:21-30

For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labour for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again. Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well – since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

For the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God

HYMN — TIS 448

- 1. Blest are the pure in heart,
for they shall see our God;
the secret of the Lord is theirs,
their soul is Christ's abode.
- 2. The Lord who left the heavens our life and peace to bring,
to dwell with us in lowliness,
our pattern and our King:
- 3. still to the lowly soul
he will himself impart,
and for his cradle and his throne chooses the pure in heart.
- 4. Lord, we your presence seek;
this blessing now renew:
give us a pure and lowly heart,
a temple fit for you.

THE HOLY GOSPEL — MATTHEW 20:1-16

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

✠Glory to you, ✠Lord Jesus ✠Christ

‘For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire labourers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the labourers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the market-place; and he said to them, "You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right." So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, "Why are you standing here idle all day?" They said to him, "Because no one has hired us." He said to them, “You also go into the vineyard.” When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, “Call the labourers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.” When those hired about five o’clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, “These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.” But he replied to one of them, “Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?” So the last will be first, and the first will be last.’

praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

OFFERTORY HYMN — TIS 259 (During the singing of this hymn, the gifts of bread, wine and money are brought to the altar)

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1.
Among us and before us, Lord, you stand with arms outstretched and bread and wine at hand.
Confronting those unworthy of a crumb,
you ask that to your table we should come. | 4.
Who dare say No, when such is your request that each around your table should be guest, that here the ancient word should live as new,
‘Take, eat and drink all this is meant for you.’? |
| 3.
Who dare say No, when such is your intent
to love the selves we famish and resent,
to cradle our uncertainties and fear,
to kindle hope as you in faith draw near? | 5.
No more we hesitate and wonder why;
no more we stand indifferent, scared or shy.
Your invitation leads us to say Yes,
to meet you where you nourish, heal and bless. |

HYMN — TIS 231

1. At the name of Jesus
every knee shall bow,
every tongue confess him
King of Glory now:
this the Father's pleasure
that we call him Lord,
who from the beginning
was the mighty Word.
2. Humbled for a season to receive a name
from the lips of sinners unto whom he came,
faithfully he bore it
spotless to the last,
brought it back victorious
when from death he passed.
3. In your hearts enthrone him, there let him make new
all that is not holy,
all that is not true.
He is God the Saviour,
he is Christ the Lord,
ever to be worshipped,
trusted and adored.
4. When this same Lord Jesus shall appear again
in his Father's glory,
there with him to reign,
then may we adore him,
all before him bow,
as our hearts confess him
King of Glory now.

Discovery Group's next morning tea will be held on Wednesday 27th September at 10.30 am at Caphs Café at 36 Franklin Street, Manuka. Friends from St Paul's and St David's enjoy meeting for morning tea on the last Wednesday of each month. We hope you will join us. The morning tea follows St Paul's 10 o'clock service which you are most welcome to attend.

Walking Group - 30th September. Honeysuckle Creek Camping Ground to Booroomba Rocks - a return flat walk of 8km plus 2.5km if you go to the top. Booroomba translated is "Wallaby Jumping Over A Rock" (not a Brumby). Lunch at Booroomba base or top and please meet at Namadgi Visitor Centre outer carpark for a 9.30 a.m. drive on sealed roads for 18km to track head. Please bring some afternoon tea to enjoy back at the camp area and register for walk no later than 28th September with Mike & Margaret 62816096 or mrroach.16@bigpond.com.

Blessing of the Animals. All welcome to this special service at St David's on Sunday 1st October at 8.30 am. The Rector will be the Celebrant and Preacher. All animals are welcome including cats, dogs, rabbits, birds, fish, teddy bears etc. Larger animals will probably have to wait outside! Those wishing to make a thanksgiving gift might like to give some packaged food, to be distributed by Anglicare. Morning tea will be served after the service. Enquiries to Canon John on 0413362544.

Sidespeople at 10am. We need two more sidespeople for 10am for the second Sunday of each month. Please let either the Rector or the office know if you are willing to help.

St Paul's to Host the Bible Society Bi-Centenary. On 15th October from 12 noon to 5-30pm all parishioners are invited to celebrate the 200th anniversary of The Bible Society in Australia. The celebration involves a display of magnificent Bibles (some over 400 years old) in St Paul's church, an Antique Bible Roadshow when Bibles brought by parishioners and their friends will be appraised by noted Bible Scholar and author Rev Dr John Harris, culminating in Choral Evensong at 6pm with Dr Harris as guest preacher. Afternoon tea will be provided, and all donations received will be devoted to the work of the Bible Society in SE Asia and the Pacific. Volunteers to help with welcoming, ushering, supervising, and afternoon tea refreshments are requested. Phone David Dillon 0251007808, or email deenjay59@gmail.com to volunteer.

ST PAUL'S FÊTE - 4TH NOVEMBER

Helpers needed. Please sign-up at the rear of the church for stalls and setting-up help at the November Fête. Also sign-up if you are a walker able to help with a local flyer letter-box drop.

Ladies' Vintage Stall. Donations of hats and "fascinators" plus any accessories suitable for Melbourne Cup parties would be appreciated. Linda Klintworth (62958887), Jeanette Evans (62817372).

Blood and Bone supply has been stopped by the Moruya Abattoir. Rod apologises to anyone who expected some.

Tomato plants: Roz Bruhn is growing two types of tomato this year – the ever-popular Tommy Toe and Moneymaker. The plants will be available in late October or at the fête and cost $4 each with all proceeds donated to the garden stall. There is an order form at the back of the church.
