

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

15TH OCTOBER 2017

ST PAUL'S: 8AM & 10AM

ST DAVID'S: 8.30AM

Then [the king] said to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.' Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

Matthew 22:8-10

Gathering in God's Name

INTROIT at 10am: - Thomas Tallis (1505-1585) Why fum'th in sight from Psalm tunes for Archbishop Parker's Psalter

Why do the heathen so furiously rage together: and why do the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers take counsel together: against the Lord, and against his anointed. [Psalm 2: 1-2]

HYMN TIS 133

1. O worship the King all-glorious above,
O gratefully sing his power and his love:
our shield and defender, the ancient of days,
pavilioned in splendour, and girded
with praise.
4. Your bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
it streams from the hills, it descends to
the plain,
and sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.
5. Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
in you do we trust, nor find you to fail:
your mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
our maker, defender, redeemer and friend.
6. O measureless might, ineffable love,
while angels delight to hymn you above,
the humbler creation, though faltering
their praise,
with true adoration shall sing all their days.

Words: Robert Grant 1779-1838 alt. based on Psalm 104 and Psalm 18 Tune: Hanover

The service continues on page 119.

SENTENCE (8.30am only)

This is our God for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Isaiah 25:9

COLLECT FOR THE DAY

Saving and healing God, you have promised that those who have died with Christ shall live with him: grant us grace to be continually thankful for all you have done for us, and in that thankfulness to be eager to serve and live for others, so that we and all your children may rejoice in your salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Ministry of the Word

A READING FROM EXODUS 32:1-14

Please be seated

WHEN the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron and said to him, 'Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' Aaron said to them, 'Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.' So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. He took the gold from them, formed it in a mould, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!' When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, 'Tomorrow shall be a festival to the LORD.' They rose early the next day, and offered burnt-offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel. The LORD said to Moses, 'Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshipped it and sacrificed to it, and said, “These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!” ’ The LORD said to Moses, ‘I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.’ But Moses implored the LORD his God, and said, ‘O LORD , why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, “It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth”? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, “I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it for ever.” ’ And the LORD changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

For the word of the Lord
thanks be to God.

PSALM 106:1-6, 20-24 (Said by the congregation in alternate verses at 8am, by all the congregation at 8.30am and sung by the choir at 10am)

- 1 Praise the Lord; O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good:
and his mercy endures for ever.
- 2 Who can express the mighty acts of the Lord:
or fully voice his praise?
- 3 Blessed are those who act according to justice:
who at all times do the right.
- 4 Remember me, O Lord, when you visit your people with your favour:
and come to me also with your salvation,
- 5 That I may see the prosperity of your chosen:
that I may rejoice with the rejoicing of your people, and exult with those who are your own.
- 6 We have sinned like our ancestors:
we have acted perversely and done wrong.
- 20 At Horeb they made themselves a calf:
and bowed down in worship to an image.
- 21 And so they exchanged the glory of God:
for the likeness of an ox that eats hay.
- 22 They forgot God who was their saviour:
that had done such great things in Egypt,
- 23 Who had worked his wonders in the land of Ham:
and his terrible deeds at the Red Sea.
- 24 Therefore he thought to destroy them:
had not Moses his servant stood before him in the breach,
to turn away his wrath from destroying them.

A READING FROM PHILIPPIANS 4:1-9

Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved. I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

For the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God

HYMN — TIS 547

1. Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart, naught be all else to me, save that thou art
thou my best thought, by day or by night, waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.
2. Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word;
I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord;
thou my great Father, thy child let me be;
thou in me dwelling, and I one with thee.
4. Riches I scorn and the world's empty praise, thou my inheritance, now and always:
thou and thou only the first in my heart;
high King of heaven, my treasure thou art.
5. High King of heaven, after victory won,
may I reach heaven's joys,
O bright heaven's Sun!
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
still be my vision, O ruler of all.

Words from The Poem Book of the Gael c.8th cent. tr. Mary Byrne 1880–1931 versified by Eleanor Hull 1860–1935 alt. Tune: Slane.

THE HOLY GOSPEL — MATTHEW 22:1-14

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

✠Glory to you, ✠Lord Jesus ✠Christ

Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, “Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.” But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, maltreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, “The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.” Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests. ‘But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, “Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?” And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, “Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” For many are called, but few are chosen.’

praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

OFFERTORY HYMN — TIS 560 (During the singing of this hymn, the gifts of bread, wine and money are brought to the altar)

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. All my hope on God is founded;
all my trust he will renew,
through all change and chance he guides me,
only good and only true.
God unknown,
he alone
calls my heart to be his own. 2. Human pride and earthly glory, sword and crown betray our trust;
all we build with care and labour,
tower and temple, fall to dust.
But God’s power,
hour by hour,
is my temple and my tower. | 4. Daily the almighty giver will his bounteous gifts bestow;
in his will our souls find pleasure,
leading us where’er we go.
Love will stand
at his hand, joy shall wait for his command. 5. Still from earth to God eternal sacrifice of praise be done, high above all praises praising
for the gift of Christ his Son.
Hear Christ call
one and all:
those who follow shall not fall. |

Words: Robert Bridges 1844–1930 alt. after Joachim Neander 1650–80. Tune: Michael.

OFFERTORY PRAYERS

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING - Pages 128 - 140

COMMUNION (at 10am - Tallis Verily, verily)

Verily, verily I say unto you, except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, ye have not life in you. Whoso eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood dwelleth in me, and I in him. [John 6:53-56]

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION - Pages 143-144

BLESSING - Page 144

HYMN — TIS 221

1. Glory to God on high!

Let heaven and earth reply,
'Praise, praise his name!'
Angels his love adore
who all our sorrows bore,
and saints cry evermore,
'Worthy the Lamb!'

2. All those around the throne cheerfully join in one,

praising his name;
we, who have felt his blood
sealing our peace with God,
sound his dear fame abroad,
'Worthy the Lamb!'

3. Join, all the ransomed race,

our Lord and God to bless:
praise, praise his name;
in him we will rejoice,
making a cheerful noise,
shouting with heart and voice,
'Worthy the Lamb!'

4. Though we must change our place,

yet we shall never cease
praising his name;
to him we'll tribute bring,
hail him our gracious King,
and without ceasing sing,
'Worthy the Lamb!'

Words: James Allen 1734-1804 alt. Tune: Moscow

News and Announcements

The beautiful flowers in St Paul's today were donated by Colleen Grafton-Green in loving of memory of Michael.

We welcome Jeremy Halcrow CEO of Anglicare who is preaching at 8 and 10am on Anglicare Sunday.

St Paul's to Host the Bible Society Bi-Centenary. Today from 12 noon to 5-30pm all parishioners are invited to celebrate the 200th anniversary of The Bible Society in Australia. The celebration involves a display of magnificent Bibles (some over 400 years old) in St Paul's, an Antique Bible Roadshow when Bibles brought by parishioners and their friends will be appraised by noted Bible Scholar and author Rev Dr John Harris, culminating in Choral Evensong at 6pm with Dr Harris as guest preacher. Afternoon tea will be provided, and all donations received will be devoted to the work of the Bible Society in SE Asia and the Pacific.

Discovery Group will be swapping the talk and morning tea mornings for October. On Wednesday 18th October from 10.30 am there will be the monthly morning tea at Caphs (36 Franklin Street). The monthly talk will take place on Wednesday 25th October in the Mollison Room from 10.30 am to 12 noon. The ACT's Chief Conservation Officer, Michael Mulvaney, will discuss People Power Re-generating Canberra's Bushland. Michael will focus on current regeneration being undertaken at Red Hill. Both events follow St Paul's 10 o'clock service which you are most welcome to attend. We hope you can join us.

Walking Group. Next walk is through two newer Molonglo Suburbs on Saturday 28th October, at 9.30 am. Meet at the Parking Area at ACT Bushfire Memorial and walk through Wright and Coombs, to the Molonglo River and the preserved Caretakers Cottage, before taking a different route back to the cars. Coffee afterwards, at Coleman Court coffee shop. RSVP to johngibson@grapevine.com.au, or phone to 6161 2321; by Wednesday 25th October.
