

TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

29TH JULY 2018

ST PAUL'S: 8 & 10AM

ST DAVID'S: 8.30AM

One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, 'There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?' Jesus said, 'Make the people sit down.' Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted.

Gathering in God's Name

INTROIT at 10am: JS Bach (1685-1750) Bist du bei mir

Bist du bei mir, geh ich mit Freuden zum Sterben und zu meiner Ruh. Ach, wie vergnügt wär so mein Ende, es drückten deine schönen Hände mir die getreuen Augen zu!

When thou art near, I go with joy to death and to my rest. O how joyous would my end be, if your fair hands would close my faithful eyes.

HYMN - TIS 134

1. Praise, my soul, the king of heaven;
to his feet your tribute bring;
ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, who like me his praise should sing?
Praise him, praise him, hallelujah,
praise the everlasting king!

2. Praise him for his grace and favour to his people in distress;
praise him still the same for ever, slow to chide, and swift to bless:
praise him, praise him, hallelujah,
glorious in his faithfulness!

3. Father-like he tends and spares us;
well our feeble frame he knows;
in his hands he gently bears us, rescues us from all our foes:
praise him, praise him, hallelujah,
widely as his mercy flows!

4. Frail as summer's flower we flourish, blows the wind and it is gone;
but while mortals rise and perish God endures unchanging on.
Praise him, praise him, hallelujah,
praise the high eternal one!

5. Angels, help us to adore him,
you behold him face to face;
sun and moon, bow down before him, dwellers all in time and space:
praise him, praise him, hallelujah,
praise with us the God of grace!

Words Henry Francis Lyte 1793-1847 alt. based on Psalm 103.
Tune: Praise, my soul. .

SENTENCE (8.30am only)

Iam the living bread that came down from heaven,' says the Lord. 'Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.' John 6:51

COLLECT FOR THE DAY

Gracious God, you have placed within the hearts of all your children a longing for your word and a hunger for your truth: grant that, believing in the one whom you have sent, we may know him to be the true bread of heaven and the food of eternal life, Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be glory and honour for ever and ever. Amen.

The Ministry of the Word

A READING FROM 2 SAMUEL 11:1-15

Please be seated

IN the spring of the year, the time when kings go out to battle, David sent Joab with his officers and all Israel with him; they ravaged the Ammonites, and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem. It happened, late one afternoon, when David rose from his couch and was walking about on the roof of the king's house, that he saw from the roof a woman bathing; the woman was very beautiful. David sent someone to inquire about the woman. It was reported, 'This is Bathsheba daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite.’ So David sent messengers to fetch her, and she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she was purifying herself after her period.) Then she returned to her house. The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, ‘I am pregnant.’ So David sent word to Joab, ‘Send me Uriah the Hittite.’ And Joab sent Uriah to David. When Uriah came to him, David asked how Joab and the people fared, and how the war was going. Then David said to Uriah, ‘Go down to your house, and wash your feet.’ Uriah went out of the king’s house, and there followed him a present from the king. But Uriah slept at the entrance of the king’s house with all the servants of his LORD, and did not go down to his house. When they told David, ‘Uriah did not go down to his house,’ David said to Uriah, ‘You have just come from a journey. Why did you not go down to your house?’ Uriah said to David, ‘The ark and Israel and Judah remain in booths; and my LORD Joab and the servants of my LORD are camping in the open field; shall I then go to my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do such a thing.’ Then David said to Uriah, ‘Remain here today also, and tomorrow I will send you back.’ So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day. On the next day, David invited him to eat and drink in his presence and made him drunk; and in the evening he went out to lie on his couch with the servants of his LORD, but he did not go down to his house. In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. In the letter he wrote, ‘Set Uriah in the forefront of the hardest fighting, and then draw back from him, so that he may be struck down and die.’

For the word of the Lord
thanks be to God.

PSALM 14 (Said by the congregation in alternate verses at 8am, by all the congregation at 8.30am and led by the choir at 10am)

- 1 Fools have said in their hearts ‘There is no God’:
they have all become vile and abominable in their doings, there is not one that does good.
- 2 The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of Adam:
to see if there were any who would act wisely and seek after God.
- 3 But they have all turned out of the way, they have all alike become corrupt:
there is none that does good, no not one.
- 4 Are all the evildoers devoid of understanding:
who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not pray to the Lord?
- 5 They shall be struck with terror:
for God is with the company of the righteous.
- 6 Though they frustrate the poor in their hopes:
surely the Lord is their refuge.
- 7 O that deliverance for Israel might come forth from Zion:
when the Lord turns again the fortunes of his people, then shall Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

A READING FROM EPHESIANS 3:14-21

For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.

For the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God

HYMN — TIS 430

- 1. Your words to me are life and health;
pour strength into my soul;
enable, guide, and teach my heart to reach its perfect goal.
- 2. Your words to me are light and truth;
from day to day they show their wisdom, passing human thought, as in their truth I grow.
- 3. Your words to me are full of joy, of beauty, peace, and grace;
from them I learn your blessed will,
through them I see your face.
- 4. Your words are perfected in One, yourself, the living Word;
within my heart your image print in clearest lines, O Lord.

THE HOLY GOSPEL — JOHN 6:1-21

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John ✠Glory to you, ✠Lord Jesus ✠Christ

After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming towards him, Jesus said to Philip, 'Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?' He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, 'Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little.' One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, 'There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?' Jesus said, 'Make the people sit down.' Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, 'Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.' So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, 'This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world.' When Jesus realised that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself. When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, got into a boat, and started across the lake to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The lake became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the lake and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, 'It is I; do not be afraid.' Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land towards which they were going.

For the gospel of the Lord praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

OFFERTORY HYMN — TIS 499 (During the singing of this hymn, the gifts of bread, wine and money are brought to the altar)

1. Lord Jesus, joy of loving hearts, true fount of life, our lives sustain, from any bliss that earth imparts we turn unfilled to you again.
2. Your truth unchanged has ever stood, you save all those who on you call,
to those yet seeking you are good,
to those who find you, all in all.
3. We taste you, Lord, the living bread, and long to feast upon you still,
we drink of you, the fountainhead, and thirst our souls from you to fill.
4. For you our restless spirits yearn, whatever comes, until the last,
glad when your presence we discern, blest when our faith can hold you fast.
5. For ever, Jesus, with us stay, make all our moments calm and bright, chase the dark night of sin away, shed on this world your holy light.

Words: Anon., Latin, 12th cent. tr. Ray Palmer 1808-87 alt.
Tune: Hereford.

HYMN — TIS 569

1. Guide me, O thou great Redeemer, pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
hold me with thy powerful hand:
bread of heaven, bread of heaven,
feed me now and evermore,
feed me now and evermore.
2. Open now the crystal fountain whence the living waters flow:
let the fiery, cloudy pillar lead me all my journey through:
strong deliverer, strong deliverer,
be thou still my strength and shield,
be thou still my strength and shield.

3. When I tread the verge of Jordan bid my anxious fears subside;
death of death, and hell's destruction, land me safe on Canaan's side:
songs of praises, songs of praises
I will ever give to thee,
I will ever give to thee.
