

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

11TH NOVEMBER 2018

ST PAUL'S: 8 AM

ST DAVID'S 8.30AM

He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury...A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.'

Gathering in God's Name

HYMN - TIS 101

1. Come, you people, come adore him
God in Holy Trinity,
God the Father, Son and Spirit,
ever blessed unity.
2. All your glory, God almighty,
to the Son and Spirit given,
ere upon the world's creation
dawned the newborn light of heaven:
3. holy, holy, we adore you
one in power, in nature one;
God the Father, God the Spirit,
God the co-eternal Son.
4. By your Son the wide creation
rose where chaos held its sway;
by the Spirit, God Almighty swept eternal night away.
5. Son, the Father's love revealing, Son, through whom the Spirit came,
blessed Godhead, endless glory
be to your exalted name!

Words: Hymn from the Russian Church tr. John Brownlie
1859-1925 alt.. Tune: Omni Die

The service continues on page 119, then page 121

SENTENCE (8.30am only)

Give and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.

Luke 6:38

COLLECT FOR THE DAY

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of evil and make us your children and heirs of eternal life: grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Ministry of the Word

A READING FROM RUTH 3:1-5; 4:13-17

Please be seated

Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, 'My daughter, I need to seek some security for you, so that it may be well with you. Now here is our kinsman Boaz, with whose young women you have been working. See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing-floor. Now wash and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing-floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. When he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then, go and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what to do.' She said to her, 'All that you tell me I will do.' ...

So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. When they came together, the LORD made her conceive, and she bore a son. Then the women said to Naomi, 'Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without next-of-kin; and may his name be renowned in Israel! He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him.' Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her bosom, and became his nurse. The women of the neighbourhood gave him a name, saying, 'A son has been born to Naomi.' They named him Obed; he became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

For the word of the Lord
thanks be to God.

PSALM 127 (Said by the congregation in alternate verses at 8am, by all the congregation at 8.30am and led by the choir at 10am)

1 Unless the Lord builds the house:

their labour is but lost that build it.

2 Unless the Lord keeps the city:
the watchmen watch in vain.

3 It is in vain that you rise up early and go so late to rest, eating the bread of toil:
for the Lord bestows honour — and on those whom he loves.

4 Behold, children are a heritage from the Lord:
and the fruit of the womb is his gift.

5 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior:
are the children of one's youth.

6 Happy the man who has his quiver full of them:
he will not be put to shame when he confronts his enemies at the gate.

A READING FROM HEBREWS 9:23-28

Thus it was necessary for the sketches of the heavenly things to be purified with these rites, but the heavenly things themselves need better sacrifices than these. For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgement, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

For the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God

HYMN — TIS 342

1. When I survey the wondrous cross
on which the Prince of glory died,
my richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.

2. Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast
save in the death of Christ my God;
all the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.

3. See from his head, his hands, his feet,
sorrow and love flow mingled down;
did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown?

4. Were the whole realm of nature mine,
that were a present far too small:
love so amazing, so divine demands my soul, my life, my all.

Words: : Isaac Watts 1674-1748. Tune: Rockingham.

THE HOLY GOSPEL — MARK 12:38-44

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

✠Glory to you, ✠Lord Jesus ✠Christ

As he taught, he said, 'Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the market-places, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honour at banquets! They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.' He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.'

For the gospel of the Lord

praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

OFFERTORY HYMN — TIS 259 (During the singing of this hymn, the gifts of bread, wine and money are brought to the altar)

- 1. Among us and before us, Lord, you stand with arms outstretched and bread and wine at hand.
Confronting those unworthy of a crumb,
you ask that to your table we should come.
- 2. Who dare say No, when such is your resolve our worst to witness, suffer and absolve,
our best to raise in lives by God forgiven,
our souls to fill on earth with food from heaven?
- 3. Who dare say No, when such is your intent to love the selves we famish and resent,
to cradle our uncertainties and fear,
to kindle hope as you in faith draw near?
- 4. Who dare say No, when such is your request that each around your table should be guest,
that here the ancient word should live as new,
'Take, eat and drink all this is meant for you.'?

- 5. No more we hesitate and wonder why;
no more we stand indifferent, scared or shy.
Your invitation leads us to say Yes,
to meet you where you nourish, heal and bless.

BLESSING - Page 144

HYMN — TIS 106

- 1. Now thank we all our God
with hearts and hands and voices,
who wondrous things has done,
in whom the world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms
has blessed us on our way
with countless gifts of love,
and still is ours today.
- 2. O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us,
with ever joyful hearts
and blessed peace to cheer us.
Lord, keep us in your grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all harm
in this world and the next.
- 3. All praise and thanks to God who reigns in highest heaven,
to Father and to Son
and Spirit now be given:
the one eternal God,
whom heaven and earth adore,
who ever was, is now,
and shall be ever more.
