

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

12TH OCTOBER 2014

ST PAUL'S: 8 & 10AM

ST DAVID'S 8.30 AM

Then [the king] said to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.' Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

|--|--|
| 1 The king of love my shepherd is,
whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am his and he is mine for ever. 2 Where streams of living water flow my ransomed soul he leadeth, and where the verdant pastures grow with food celestial feedeth. 3 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, but yet in love he sought me,
and on his shoulder gently laid,
and home rejoicing brought me. | 4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill
with thee, dear Lord, beside me;
thy rod and staff my comfort still,
thy cross before to guide me. 5 Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
thy unction grace bestoweth;
and O what transport of delight from thy pure chalice floweth! 6 And so through all the length of days thy goodness faileth never:
good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise
within thy house for ever. |

Words: Henry Williams Baker 1821-77 based on Psalm 23. Tune: Dominus Regit Me.

The service continues as normal

SENTENCE (8.30 AM ONLY)

This is our God for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Isaiah 25:9

COLLECT FOR THE DAY

Saving and healing God, you have promised that those who have died with Christ shall live with him: grant us grace to be continually thankful for all you have done for us, and in that thankfulness to be eager to serve and live for others, so that we and all your children may rejoice in your salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Ministry of the Word

A READING FROM EXODUS 32:1-14

Please be seated

WHEN the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron and said to him, 'Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' Aaron said to them, 'Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.' So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. He took the gold from them, formed it in a mould, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!' When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, 'Tomorrow shall be a festival to the LORD.' They rose early the next day, and offered burnt-offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel. The LORD said to Moses, 'Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshipped it and sacrificed to it, and said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!"' The LORD said to Moses, 'I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.' But Moses implored the LORD his God, and said, 'O LORD, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, “It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth”? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, “I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it for ever.” And the LORD changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

For the word of the Lord,

thanks be to God.

PSALM 106:1-6, 20-24 (Said by the congregation in alternate verses at 8 am, by all the congregation at 8.30am and led by the choir at 10am)

1 Praise the Lord; O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good:
and his mercy endures for ever.

2 Who can express the mighty acts of the Lord:
or fully voice his praise?

3 Blessed are those who act according to justice:
who at all times do the right.

4 Remember me, O Lord, when you visit your people with your favour:
and come to me also with your salvation,

5 That I may see the prosperity of your chosen:
that I may rejoice with the rejoicing of your people, and exult with those who are your own.

6 We have sinned like our ancestors:
we have acted perversely and done wrong.

20 At Horeb they made themselves a calf:
and bowed down in worship to an image.

21 And so they exchanged the glory of God:
for the likeness of an ox that eats hay.

22 They forgot God who was their saviour:
that had done such great things in Egypt,

23 Who had worked his wonders in the land of Ham:
and his terrible deeds at the Red Sea.

24 Therefore he thought to destroy them:
had not Moses his servant stood before him in the breach,
to turn away his wrath from destroying them.

A READING FROM PHILIPPIANS 4:1-9

Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved. I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

For the word of the Lord,

thanks be to God

HYMN — TIS 456

1. Your hand, O God, has guided your flock from age to age;
the wondrous tale is written,
full clear, on every page;
your people owned your goodness,
and we their deeds record;
and both of this bear witness:
one church, one faith, one Lord.
2. Your heralds brought glad tidings to greatest, as to least;
they bade them rise, and hasten
to share the great King's feast;
and this was all their teaching,
in every deed and word,
to all alike proclaiming
one church, one faith, one Lord.
3. Through many a day of darkness, through many a scene of strife,
the faithful few fought bravely
to guard the nation's life.
Their gospel of redemption,
sin pardoned, earth restored,
was all in this enfolded:
one church, one faith, one Lord.
4. Your mercy will not fail us, nor leave your work undone;
with your right hand to help us,
the victory shall be won;
and then by all creation,
your name shall be adored,
and this shall be our anthem:
one church, one faith, one Lord.

Words: Edward Hayes Plumptre 1821–91 alt.. Tune: Thornbury

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (10am only)

Choir: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Congregation: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Choir: May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, so that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.

Congregation: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

THE HOLY GOSPEL — MATTHEW 22:1-14

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

✠Glory to you, ✠Lord Jesus ✠Christ

Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, "Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet." But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, maltreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, "The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet." Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests. 'But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, "Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?" And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'

For the Gospel of the Lord:

praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

| 1 Just as I am, without one plea
but that your blood was shed for me,
and that you would my Saviour be,
O Lamb of God, I come. 2 Just as I am, though tossed about with many a conflict, many a doubt, fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come. 3 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind — sight, riches, healing of the mind, yes, all I need, in you to find,
O Lamb of God, I come. | 4 Just as I am, you will receive,
will welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
because your promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come. 5 Just as I am — your love unknown has broken every barrier down —
now to be yours, and yours alone,
O Lamb of God, I come. 6 Just as I am, of that free love the breadth, length, depth and height to prove,
here for a season, then above,
O Lamb of God, I come. |

| 1 Hail Redeemer, King divine!
Priest and Lamb, the throne is thine,
King, whose reign shall never cease,
Prince of everlasting peace.
Angels, saints and nations sing,
'Praised be Jesus Christ, our King!
Lord of life, earth, sky and sea,
King of love on Calvary.' 2 King, whose name creation thrills, rule our minds, our hearts, our wills,
till in peace each nation rings
with their praises, King of kings.
Angels, saints and nations sing ... | 3 King most holy, King of truth, guide the lowly, guide the youth;
Christ the King of glory bright,
be to us eternal light.
Angels, saints and nations sing ... 4 Shepherd-king, from mountains steep, homeward bring the wandering sheep;
shelter in one royal fold
states and kingdoms, new and old.
Angels, saints and nations sing ... |

Names remain on the prayer list for four Sundays only, unless the parish office is advised otherwise.

Pastoral visits for the sick. Please let the Parish office know if you know of someone who is sick who may appreciate a pastoral visit.

News and Announcements

To add a notice, email or call the Parish Office by 1.30pm on the Tuesday before the notice is to appear.

St David's Spring Garden Party A garden party with fresh strawberries and champagne will be held after the St David's 8:30am service today. We will take this opportunity to welcome the Rev'd Brad Lovegrove. Please bring a plate of sandwiches or similar and you are encouraged to wear a hat!

Three Choirs festival on today at 6pm, the combined Choirs of St Paul's, St John's, and All Saints' will sing a service of Choral Evensong (1662 Book of Common Prayer) at St Paul's. Evensong is a great Anglican spiritual treasure and a wonderful way to begin the week. Music includes canticles by Stanford and Faure's timeless Cantique de Jean Racine. Please note: this is instead of Evensong on the 19th October.

St Paul's Discovery Group invites you to its next meeting on Wednesday 15th October (10.30 to 12 noon). Our guest speaker will be Dewari Bakkuma, who, with one of her colleagues from the Migrant & Refugee Settlement Services, will broaden our knowledge about the re-settlement of migrants and refugees into the Canberra community. The role of volunteers in this work will also be explained. Join us for morning tea in the Mollinson Room at 10.30.

Annual Bishop Owen Dowling Memorial Ecumenical Healing Seminar and Service is being held on Saturday 18th October [St Luke's Day] 11am to 2pm at Ainslie Church of Christ. Keynote Address by Dr Annette Rice The dynamic relationship between medicine and prayers for healing - a personal perspective. See 'flyer' on the table at entrance to the church. All invited.

Baroque concert: Igitur Nos Chamber Choir and Orchestra conducted by our Director of Music Matthew Stuckings present Charpentier's Te Deum and Handel's Ode to St Cecilia in a concert at St Paul's on Sunday 19th October at 3pm. Tickets $25/$20 via <http://igiturnos.wordpress.com> or at the door.

Anglicare Cards: A limited number of Anglicare cards will be available for sale after the services on Sunday 19th October and on following Sundays until sold. Anglicare have decided to discontinue their involvement in the Charity Card Scheme so this is the last year that cards will be available. All single cards are 50c each and there are packs of 10 mixed cards for $3.00.

Walking Group. It's Springtime and an ideal opportunity for you and your friends to join the Walking Group for a leisurely two hour stroll through the picturesque grounds of the Australian National University. The walk will visit many of the interesting and contrasting sculptures spread across the University campus. There will also be some brief details available on the sculptors and their works. During the walk, there will also be opportunities for several 'coffee & cake' breaks at interesting, but not so well known, venues. All are most welcome to join the Group for the ANU "sculpture" walk starting at 9am on Saturday 25th October from the main entrance to the National Museum of Australia. But remember to let the Walk Leader, John Holthouse, know that you are coming (phone 6231 4228 or mobile 0432 543 396).

The Rector is on leave until 16th November.

Public forum on Welcoming refugees: a call to people of faith will be held from 7-8pm on Tuesday 14th October at the Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture, 15 Blackall Street, Barton.

St Paul's fête 8th November

Craft stall. Help needed to sell items on the day. Please contact Trish on 6295 3749.

Men de-clutter!!!! Clear out your unwanted workshop and garden tools and donate them to the Home Handyman stall at the fete. Power tools cannot be accepted. Also needed are small packets of various sized nails, screws, nuts and bolts, rivets, etc. Auto accessories and other gadgets of interest to men may also be donated. Contact Ian Gollings on 6281 1162 or 0405 236 201.

Tickets for the grand raffle are now available after the 8am and 10am services from the sidespeople on duty at the exit door. We would like each family to sell a book to family, friends, workmates... All tickets/money to be returned to the office or to Beth or Rod King after 10am or to Brian or Susan after the 8am service. Extra books available on request. Prizes are listed in the books.

Collectables: Ladies' vintage shoes, hats, handbags, gloves, belts, scarves and similar items sought for this stall. Please call Linda Klintworth on 62958887.

Jewellery stall. We have a very sparse collection so far, so if you have any unwanted jewellery: broaches, rings, beads etc., they would be greatly appreciated. But no watches please. Also help is needed for the stall on the day. A red box for jewellery for the fête is at the back of the Church.

Blood and bone. 10kg bags for $16. Contact Rod King on 0411 093 887.

Plants: Roz Bruhn is growing two varieties of tomato (Oxheart and Tommy Toe), zucchinis and pumpkins for the fête's garden stall, but plants may be ordered and delivered in advance. An order form will be in church on Sunday 18th October. Enquiries to Roz on 6282 1214.

Cake and Sweet Stall. Start collecting the containers and wrappings you will use for your wonderful cooking. Clear wrappings (cellophane and "Glad" wrap) are a great way of presenting your goodies and please remember to include an ingredients list.
