

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

26TH OCTOBER 2014

ST PAUL'S: 8 & 10AM

ST DAVID'S 8.30 AM

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. 'Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?'

He said to him, ' "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind." This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.'

INTROIT (10AM ONLY - CHOIR) Christopher Tye (ca. 1500-1572) O come, ye servants of the Lord

HYMN — TIS 96

1 Sing praise to the Lord! praise him in the height; rejoice in his word, you angels of light; all heaven adore him by whom you were made, and worship before him in brightness arrayed.	3 Sing praise to the Lord, all things that give sound; each jubilant chord re-echo around; loud organs, his glory tell forth in deep tone, and sweet harp, the story of what he has done.
2 Sing praise to the Lord! praise him upon earth, in tuneful accord sing praise for new birth; praise him who has brought you his grace from above, praise him who has taught you to sing of his love.	4 Sing praise to the Lord! thanksgiving and song to him be outpoured all ages along; for love in creation, for heaven restored, for grace of salvation, sing praise to the Lord!

Words: Henry Williams Baker 1821-77 alt. Based on Psalm 148 and Psalm 150. Tune: Laudate Dominum

The service continues as normal

SENTENCE (8.30 AM ONLY)

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. Matthew 22:37-40

COLLECT FOR THE DAY

O God, whose Son has taught us that love is the fulfilment of your law: stir up within us the fire of your Holy Spirit, and pour into our hearts your greatest gift of love, so that we may love you with our whole being, and our neighbours as ourselves; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Ministry of the Word

A READING FROM DEUTERONOMY 34:1-12

Please be seated

THEN Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the LORD showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negeb, and the Plain – that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees – as far as Zoar. The LORD said to him, ‘This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, “I will give it to your descendants”; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.’ Then Moses, the servant of the LORD, died there in the land of Moab, at the LORD’s command. He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigour had not abated. The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab for thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended. Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the LORD had commanded Moses. Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face. He was unequalled for all the signs and wonders that the LORD sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

For the word of the Lord,

thanks be to God.

PSALM 90:1-6, 13-17 (Said by the congregation in alternate verses at 8 am, by all the congregation at 8.30am and led by the choir at 10am)

- 1 Lord, you have been our refuge:
from one generation to another.
- 2 Before the mountains were born or the earth and the world were brought to be:
from eternity to eternity you are God.
- 3 You turn us back into dust:
saying 'Return to dust, O children of Adam.'
- 4 For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday passing:
or like one watch of the night.
- 5 You cut them short like a dream:
like the fresh grass of the morning;
- 6 In the morning it is green and flourishes:
at evening it is withered and dried up.
- 13 Relent, O Lord; how long will you be angry?:
take pity on your servants.
- 14 O satisfy us early with your mercy:
that all our days we may rejoice and sing.
- 15 Give us joy for all the days you have afflicted us:
for the years we have suffered adversity.
- 16 Show your servants your work:
and let their children see your glory.
- 17 May the gracious favour of the Lord our God be upon us:
prosper the work of our hands, O prosper the work of our hands!

A READING FROM 1 THESSALONIANS 2:1-13

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully maltreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us. You remember our labour and toil, brothers and sisters; we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you while we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. You are witnesses, and God also, how pure, upright, and blameless our conduct was towards you believers. As you know, we dealt with each one of you like a father with his children, urging and encouraging you and pleading that you should lead a life worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory. We also constantly give thanks to God for this, that when you received the word of God that you heard from us, you accepted it not as a human word but as what it really is, God's word, which is also at work in you believers.

For the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God

HYMN — TIS 699

A new commandment I give unto you that you love one another
as I have loved you,
that you love one another
as I have loved you.

By this will others know
that you are my disciples
if you have love one for another;
by this will others know
that you are my disciples
if you have love one for another.

Words from John 13:34,35.
Tune: New Commandment

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (10am only)

Choir: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Congregation: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Choir: All who love me will keep my word, says the Lord:
and my Father will love them and we will come to them.

THE HOLY GOSPEL — MATTHEW 22:34-46

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

✠Glory to you, ✠Lord Jesus ✠Christ

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind." This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.' Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: 'What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?' They said to him, 'The son of David.' He said to them, 'How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, "The Lord said to my Lord, 'Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet' "? If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?' No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

For the Gospel of the Lord:

praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

OFFERTORY HYMN — TIS 650 (During the singing of this hymn, the gifts of bread, wine and money are brought to the altar)

- 1 Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.
- 2 We are pilgrims on a journey
and companions on the road;
we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.
- 3 I will hold the Christ-light for you in the night-time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear.
- 4 I will weep when you are weeping;
when you laugh I'll laugh with you;
I will share your joy and sorrow till we've seen this journey through.
- 5 When we sing to God in heaven
we shall find such harmony, born of all we've known together
of Christ's love and agony.
- 6 Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.

HYMN — TIS 153

- 1 God is love, let heav'n adore him;
God is love, let earth rejoice;
let creation sing before him,
and exalt him with one voice.
God, who laid the earth's foundation,
he who spread the heavens above,
and who breathes through all creation,
God is love, eternal Love.
- 2 God is love, and gently enfolding
all the world in one embrace, with unfailing grasp is holding every child of every race.
And when human hearts are breaking under sorrow's iron rod, then they find that selfsame aching deep within the heart of God.
- 3 God is love, and, though with blindness sin afflicts our human hearts, God's eternal lovingkindness holding, guiding, grace imparts.
Sin and death and hell shall never o'er us final triumph gain;
God is love, so love for ever o'er the universe must reign.

Words: Timothy Rees 1874–1939 alt. Tune: Abbot's Leigh

DISMISSAL

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen.

News and Announcements

To add a notice, email or call the Parish Office by 1.30pm on the Tuesday before the notice is to appear.

Tapestry/Handicraft group will meet at the home of Jenny Hodge on Wednesday 5th November commencing at 2 pm. The address is 108/19 State Circle, Forrest, telephone 6161 3864. All welcome!

Discovery Group's next morning tea will be held at La Rondevous Café at Manuka Court (between Bougainville Street & Palmerston Lane) on Wednesday 29th October from 10.30am.

Discovery Group members from St Paul's & St David's meet for morning tea on the last Wednesday of each month. This is a great chance for members of both congregations to meet and chat informally with friends. The morning tea follows St Paul's 10 o'clock service which you are most welcome to attend.

ACT Heritage Grants Program. The Parish has successfully applied for a grant of $9,940 in funding assistance for the preparation of a new Conservation Management Plan (CMP) for St. Paul's. The CMP will guide longer term conservation and the grant will enable us to engage an external consultant to assist with the architectural/heritage aspects of the plan. Thank you especially to Sandy White in the preparation of our application and to Eddie Braggett, Alan Christie and Robert Deane who will assist Sandy and the consultant in the preparation of the new CMP.

The Rector is on leave until 16th November.

St Paul's fête 8th November

Set up of White Elephant and books in the Hall. Muscle needed Tuesday 28th October from 4 pm to 6 pm Contact Rod 0411 093 887.

Grand fête raffle. Thank you to those who have sold their tickets. Please return the butts and money (and any unsold tickets) in an envelope to Susan after the 8am service, or to Beth or Rod after the 10am service. Envelopes are available at the back of the church. Extra books are available from the sidespeople after services or the office during the week. We would appreciate the return of money and sold and unsold tickets the week before the fête so that unsold tickets may be sold at the fête itself.

"What Plant Is That?" is often asked by customers at the Plant Stall. An unidentified plant is hard to sell. Please identify and tag plants prior to delivering them for the fête using plastic tags available from hardware outlets, paddlepop sticks or cut-up white ice cream containers. Plants that are well rooted, appropriately pruned, flowering and in good condition sell easily. Water the plant well before delivery to the fête. Please deliver your fête plants to Pete Tedder (6282 1711) on Friday 7th November at the Church between 1 and 5.30 pm. Overnight, they will be stored alongside the Church and help will be needed to move them to the stall location on Saturday. We still need more helpers so please nominate on the list in the Church.

Collectables: Ladies' vintage shoes, hats, handbags, gloves, belts, scarves and similar items sought for this stall. Please call Linda Klintworth on 62958887.

St Paul's fête 8th November - continued

Jewellery stall. Any unwanted jewellery: broaches, rings, beads etc., would be greatly appreciated for this stall. But no watches please. A red box for jewellery for the fête is at the back of the Church. If you can help on the day please sign up on the list at the back of the church.

White elephants. We will be accepting items (for the White Elephant stall from 29th October. Please bring your items to the hall between 9.30 and 1.30 weekdays. Please note we do not accept electrical items or videotapes.

Special Discounts Available! Men who have donated items will be entitled to special discounts at the Home Handyman Stall. Clear out unwanted workshop and garden tools from your shed and donate them to the Home Handyman stall. Power tools, however, cannot be accepted. Also needed are small packets of various sized nails, screws, nuts and bolts, rivets, etc. . Auto accessories and other gadgets of interest to men may also be donated. Contact Ian Gollings on 6281 1162 or 0405 236 201.

Tea stall. Large patio umbrellas with firm stands are required for the morning tea stall on November 8th to provide extra shade for the tables. If you have one of these please contact Mary Pollard - mary@pollardcorp.com. Thank you.

Plants: Roz Bruhn would like to thank all the people who supported her efforts to raise funds for the fête's garden stall. In total 95 vegetable and tomato plants were ordered and just over $300 will be donated to the stall.

Jam and Produce Stall. Jams can be delivered now to the Kings at 33 Norman Street, Deakin. Please label your jars with type and all ingredients. Deliver produce to the stall on the day.

NEXT SUNDAY –2ND NOVEMBER - ALL SAINTS
